Important Information

GENERAL INFORMATION

This application is for use in claiming a property tax exemption pursuant to Tax Code Section 11.22 for property owned by a disabled veteran, the surviving spouse or surviving child, with a service-connected disability, or a U.S. armed service member who died on active duty.

FILING INSTRUCTIONS

Property owners applying for a disabled veteran's or survivor's exemption may file this form and supporting documentation with the appraisal district in the county in which the property is located. Do not file this document with the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts. Contact information for appraisal district offices may be found on the Comptroller's website.

APPLICATION DEADLINES (Tax Code Section 11.43(a-d)):

You must submit the completed application and supporting documents to the appraisal district between Jan. 1 and April 30 of the tax year for which you request the exemption. For good cause shown, the chief appraiser may extend the deadline for filing the application by written order for a single period not to exceed 60 days. The chief appraiser may disapprove the application and request additional information. If the chief appraiser requests additional information, the information must be furnished within 30 days after the date of the request, or the application is denied. For good cause shown, the chief appraiser may extend the deadline for furnishing the information by written order for a single period not to exceed 15 days. If the chief appraiser denies the application, you may protest that determination to the county appraisal review board under Tax Code chapter 41.

LATE APPLICATIONS (Tax Code Section 11.439):

Applicants may file a late application no later than five years after the delinquency date for the taxes on the designated property.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION

Applicants must provide the following documentation supporting this exemption request:

- attach a copy of property owner's driver's license or state-issued personal identification certificate
- documentation indicating the percentage of disability certified by the Veterans Administration or its successor or the branch of the armed services in which the veteran served

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION REQUEST

Once this exemption is allowed, an application does not have to be filed annually unless the ownership of the property changes or qualifications for the exemption change. The chief appraiser may require a new application to be filed to confirm current eligibility by sending written notice and an application form.

DUTY TO NOTIFY

If eligibility ends, the property owner must notify the appraisal district in writing before May 1 after the eligibility ends.

EXEMPTION QUALIFICATIONS (Tax Code Section 11.22):

Disabled Veteran's Exemption A qualified individual is entitled to an exemption from taxation of a portion of the assessed value of one property the applicant owns and designates. This application applies to property owned on Jan. 1 of this year.

To qualify, an individual must be a Texas resident and possess a veteran's percentage of disability certified by the Veterans' Administration (VA) or its successor or the branch of the armed services in which the veteran served.

A qualified applicant can receive this exemption on only one property, which must be the same for every taxing unit in which the applicant claims the exemption.

A disability rating from 10-29 percent can have an exemption up to $5,000 from the property's assessed value, 30-49 percent up to $7,500, 50-69 percent up to $10,000 and 70-100 percent up to $12,000.

Disability Rating	Exemption Amount Up To
10% - 29%	$5,000 from the property value
30% - 49%	$7,500 from the property value
50% - 69%	$10,000 from the property value
70% - 100%	$12,000 from the property value

A disabled veteran may also qualify for an exemption of $12,000 of the assessed value of the property if the veteran is age 65 or older with a disability rating of at least 10 percent; totally blind in one or both eyes; or has lost the use of one or more limbs.

Survivor's Exemption (Tax Code Section 11.22(c)(d)): The veteran's surviving spouse is entitled to an exemption from taxation of a portion of the assessed value of a property the spouse owns and designates for the exemption. The amount of the exemption is the amount of the veteran's exemption at the time of death. The spouse is entitled to this exemption only for as long as the spouse remains unmarried.

If the spouse does not survive the veteran, each of the veteran's surviving children who is younger than 18 years of age and unmarried is entitled to an exemption from taxation of a portion of the assessed value of a property the child owns and designates for the exemption.

Your answers — change any before you file

These are the choices you made; we just placed them on the forms. Read them over — if anything is wrong, cross it out and write the correct answer by hand before you mail.

Before you mail, write these in by hand

A few things must be added in ink — they can't be typed for you:

- Sign each form by hand — we left the signature line blank for your ink signature.
- Form 50-135 has a Social Security number line. We never ask for it online. If you'd rather use your SSN than a driver's license, write it in by hand.
- Add your Texas driver's license or ID number (or leave it blank and attach a copy).

A veteran's exemption you may qualify for

With a VA disability rating of 50%, you may qualify for an exemption of up to $10,000 from the assessed value of one property (Texas Tax Code Section 11.22). A veteran's exemption can be filed late up to 5 years after the tax delinquency date. A veteran who is age 65+, blind in one or both eyes, or has lost the use of one or more limbs may qualify for $12,000. Only HCAD decides eligibility — this is not legal or tax advice. Your Form 50-135 is pre-filled below.

How to file Form 50-135

1. Sign it. You must sign (it is a sworn document). Fill in branch of service, disability rating, age, and serial number.
2. Attach your documents:
 - Your VA disability rating letter (the Benefit Summary Letter from va.gov), showing the most recent rating.
 - A copy of your Texas driver's license / state ID.
3. Submit — mail or in person only: mail to Harris Central Appraisal District, P.O. Box 922004, Houston, TX 77292-2004, OR drop off in person at 13013 Northwest Freeway, Houston, TX 77040. This exemption cannot be filed online or by iFile (only homestead can be filed online).
4. HCAD does NOT accept applications by email. Only the three channels above.
5. Deadline: Jan 1 – Apr 30 (late filing allowed up to 5 years back, Tax Code 11.439).

VN Property Tax Help is a document-preparation service — not legal or tax advice. You file it yourself. We are not HCAD or any government agency. Only HCAD decides eligibility.
