Applied to 2,200 sqft, an equal-and-uniform value is about $330,000, a reduction of $77,000.

Texas Tax Code §41.43(b)(3) — a protest on unequal appraisal is determined in favor of the owner unless the appraisal district establishes that the appraised value is equal to or less than the median appraised value of a reasonable number of comparable properties, appropriately adjusted. This evidence establishes that median.

How to file your protest

There are two ways to file — pick one: (1) print PART 2 (the MAIL-to-HCAD part) and mail it to HCAD, or (2) file online with HCAD iFile and upload your evidence file. To file online:

1. Go to owners.hcad.org and sign in. You'll need your HCAD account number (1234567890123) and your iFile number — it's in the top-right corner of your Notice of Appraised Value. Lost the notice? Scan your driver's license at features.hcad.org to retrieve it.
2. Start a protest for this property and choose the reason «value is over market / unequal appraisal.»
3. Answer iFile's questions using this kit as your answer key. Your answers are already written on the «Your answers» page and Form 50-132 in this kit — copy the same ones into iFile:
 - Your opinion of value → $330,000
 - Reason for protest → unequal appraisal (equal & uniform)
 - Hearing choices (informal meeting, panel, how you'll attend, notice) → same as your Form 50-132
4. Upload your evidence file — the separate «iFile evidence» PDF you downloaded (the Equal & Uniform comparison). Attach it as your evidence.
5. Submit before the deadline: May 15 (or 30 days after your appraisal notice date, whichever is later). You'll get a confirmation — save it.

iFile's screens use HCAD's own wording, so they won't match this form line-for-line — but the answers above are exactly what it asks for.

WHAT TO DO NEXT — YOUR HEARING

After you file your protest, HCAD mails you a notice with the hearing date and time. You keep the right to present your case live whichever way you choose — the only difference is that phone/video/affidavit must PRE-FILE the evidence.

You chose: in person. No affidavit and no upload needed. When your hearing notice arrives, bring this kit and your comparable-property evidence to the hearing and present it. If you want to try to settle first, HCAD usually offers an informal meeting — most reductions happen there.

If your case goes to a hearing (ARB) — the short playbook

Most protests settle before a hearing. If yours does go: it's a short meeting (usually 15–20 minutes) in front of the Appraisal Review Board (ARB) — local residents, not HCAD employees. They decide only your home's value; they don't set tax rates and by law they cannot consider your personal finances.

The step almost nobody takes: at least 14 days before your hearing the appraisal district must send you the ARB's hearing procedures and tell you that you may request copies of the evidence they intend to use.

Ask for it in writing as soon as your notice arrives — then you walk in already knowing which comparable homes they picked.

Inside the hearing

- The ARB must send you the date, time and place at least 15 days ahead. Arrive early.
- You choose who presents first — you or the HCAD appraiser. Going first anchors your number; going second lets you answer theirs.
- Bring copies for every panel member plus the HCAD representative (usually 4–5 sets).
- The ARB's decision applies to this tax year only — you can protest again next year.

What to say, word for word

«Good morning. My home is appraised at $407,000. I pulled homes of similar size and age in my neighborhood from the district's own records; their median appraised value per square foot is lower than mine. Based on equal and uniform appraisal, I'm asking for a value of $330,000.»

What NOT to say — «my taxes are too high» (the ARB doesn't set rates) · «I can't afford it» (the law forbids them from weighing it) · attacking the appraiser personally · Zillow-style estimates alone (Texas doesn't make sale prices public, so they carry little weight).

If the ARB says no — you have 60 days from the written order. A homestead owner can request binding arbitration at any value: the deposit is $450 for a homestead appraised at $500,000 or less. If the arbitrator's value lands closer to yours than to the ARB's, your deposit is refunded less a $50 administrative fee and the district pays the arbitrator; if it doesn't, your deposit pays the arbitrator. Your taxes must be current or the case is dismissed. File through Texas.gov or on Form AP-219. Or simply re-check free next spring.

Your ready-to-send request for HCAD's evidence — sign and send

Under Texas Tax Code §41.461 you may request a copy of the data and material the appraisal district will use at your hearing. More importantly, under §41.67(d), information you requested that they fail to deliver at least 14 days before the hearing may not be used as evidence. Send this as early as you can — ideally the same day you file your protest.

How to send it (pick one):

1. Upload or send it from your account at owners.hcad.org (you'll need your HCAD account number + iFile number).
2. Mail or drop off: Harris Central Appraisal District, 13013 Northwest Freeway, Houston, TX 77040-6305.
3. Call (713) 957-7800 to ask where your hearing evidence is — write down the date you called.

Keep proof of the date you asked.

A total exemption you may qualify for

YOUR COPY

As a veteran the VA rates 100% disabled (or individually unemployable at the 100% compensation rate), you may qualify for a total exemption — 100% of the appraised value of your residence homestead is exempt from property tax (Texas Tax Code §11.131). This is filed on Form 50-114, not the partial Form 50-135. A veteran's exemption can be filed late up to 5 years back. Only HCAD decides eligibility — this is not legal or tax advice. Your Form 50-114 is pre-filled for you below.

How to file Form 50-114

1. Sign it. You must sign (it is a sworn document). Add your TX driver's license / state ID number.
2. Attach your documents:
 - Your VA award letter showing a 100% disability rating (or individual unemployability at the 100% rate).
 - A copy of your Texas driver's license — the address must match the property.
3. Submit — mail or in person only: mail to Harris Central Appraisal District, P.O. Box 922004, Houston, TX 77292-2004, OR drop off in person at 13013 Northwest Freeway, Houston, TX 77040. This exemption cannot be filed online or by iFile (only homestead can be filed online).
4. HCAD does NOT accept exemption applications by email. Only the three channels above.
5. Deadline: Jan 1 – Apr 30 (veteran / surviving-spouse exemptions can be filed late — up to 5 years back, Tax Code 11.439).

Two separate filings. Your protest and your exemption application both go to HCAD and may share one envelope, but they are separate filings. The protest must be filed by May 15 (or 30 days after your appraisal notice date, whichever is later) — this deadline is firm. The exemption is due April 30 but can be filed late (homestead up to about 2 years back, veteran up to 5 years), so if you are short on time, mail the protest first.

VN Property Tax Help is a document-preparation service — not legal or tax advice. You file it yourself. We are not HCAD or any government agency. Only HCAD decides eligibility.

Equal & Uniform Comparison

Under Texas Tax Code §41.43(b)(3), a home may not be appraised higher per square foot than a reasonable number of comparable homes, appropriately adjusted. This home is assessed at $185.00/sqft. Across 11 comparable homes (size within 17.5%, age within 12 years), the median is $150.00/sqft — 23% higher. Applied to 2,200 sqft, an equal-and-uniform value is about $330,000, a reduction of $77,000.

Legal Basis

Texas Tax Code §41.43(b)(3) — a protest on unequal appraisal is determined in favor of the owner unless the appraisal district establishes that the appraised value is equal to or less than the median appraised value of a reasonable number of comparable properties, appropriately adjusted. This evidence establishes that median.
